

CLAIMS

1. Phytopharmaceutical food products characterized in that they contain plant extracts and aminoacids, and in that they can be used to reduce tobacco smoke addiction.

2. Products according to claim 1, characterized in that they contain at least 50 % by weight of plant extract.

3. Products according to claim 1, characterized in that the plant extracts represent between 45 % and 85 % by weight of the products.

4. Products according to claim 1, characterized in that they contain up to 30 % by weight of aminoacids.

5. Products according to claim 1, characterized in that they contain between 10 and 20 % aminoacids by product weight, preferably between 13 % and 17 %.

6. Products according to claim 1, characterized in that they contain sorbitol in a percentage lower than 10 %, preferably between 4 and 6 %.

7. Products according to claim 1, characterized in that they contain water in quantities of less than 20 % of their own weight and preferably between 12 and 18 % by weight.

8. Products according to claim 1, characterized in that they contain natural aromas in percentage of less than 1 %, preferably under 0.5 %, and even more preferably between 0.2 and 0.4 %.

9. Products according to claim 1, characterized in that they contain mineral salts and trace elements in percentages of less than 10 %.

10. Products according to claim 1, characterized in that they contain hormones in percentages of less than 10 %.

11. Products according to claim 1, characterized in that they contain proteins in percentages of less than 10 %.

12. Products according to claim 1, characterized in that they contain bioflavonoids in percentages of less than 5 %.

13. Products according to claim 1, characterized in that they contain provitamins and/or vitamins in percentages of less than 10 %.